

HOW TO GET AN F-1 STUDENT VISA

1. After you have received your Las Positas College acceptance letter and I-20 Form, contact your nearest U.S. consulate to apply for your F-1 student visa. Visit http://travel.state.gov/visa/questions_embassy.html to find more information on your nearest U.S. consulate and the visa application procedures. Visa application procedures vary somewhat among Embassies and Consulates, depending on local needs. In most countries, you will need to make an appointment. This can be done by telephone, mail, over the internet, or in person, depending on circumstances in your country. Visit <http://www.unitedstatesvisas.gov> for even more information on obtaining a visa
2. You can see the current visa wait time at your consulate by visiting the following website: http://travel.state.gov/visa/tempvisitors_wait.php
3. Effective September 1, 2004 a new fee of $100 has been required to cover the costs of the new Student and Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS). Effective October 27, 2008, this fee will be increased to $200. Complete I-901 Form to pay the fee. You can complete the I-901 Form on online with a credit card at <http://www.fmjfee.com> or by mail or by Western Union Quick Express. You will need your SEVIS ID # which is on the top right hand side of the first page of your I-20 under the words Student's Copy and above the barcode. All SEVIS ID numbers start with the letter N. Our school code, also on your I-20 is SFR214F01580000.
4. Complete DS 156 Nonimmigrant Visa Application Form. This may be the electronic "e-form application" available at <http://evisaforms.state.gov/default.asp>
